

Max-Planck Summer Academy for Legal History 2016
Special Theme: Multinormativity

Monday, 18 July

9:15-10:45 Meet&Greet

O. Moutin: Preliminary Remarks

S. Rüter/P. Bajon/O. Danwerth: The Max Planck Society and the Max Planck Institute for Legal History

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Inge Kroppenberg: Antiquity

Lunch

14:30 Library Tour

15:30-17:00 Christiane Birr: Ius Commune and Canon Law I

17:00 Frankfurt City Tour / Dinner

Tuesday, 19 July

9:15-10:45 Christiane Birr: Ius Commune and Canon Law II

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Peter Candy: Roman maritime law during the height of the Empire: a socio-legal and economic perspective

Laura Vejselji: The doctrine of restitution of John Duns Scotus

Lunch and free study time

15:30-17:00 Thomas Duve: Multinormativity: a fruitful approach for Global Legal History?

Coffee

17:30-18:30 Discussion Groups: Multinormativity

18:30 Meeting with PhDs from the MPIeR

Wednesday, 20 July

9:15-10:45 Wim Decock: Multinormativity and History of Private Law: The Example of Early Modern Theological Sources

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Philipp Hellwege: Private Law II

Lunch and free study time

15:30-17:00 Tamar Menashe: Betrayal and Conversion: Jews, Christians and Cross-Confessional Legal Culture in Reformation Germany
Luize Navarro: Municipal Councils: councilmen, schepren and Indians in Dutch Brazil (1630-1654)

Coffee

17:30-19:00 Nadeera Rupesinghe: Navigating Pluralities Colonial Lawmaking in the Galle Landraad (1740-1796)
Antoni Lohandés: Integration of the new British and Catholics subjects in the government and institutions of the four colonies organized by the Royal Proclamation of 1763

Thursday, 21 July

9:15-10:45 Karl Härter: History of Criminal Law, Crime and Criminal Justice

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Francisco Beltrán: The administration of civil and criminal justice among popular groups, Mexico City: legal culture, social order and institutional legitimacy, 1812-1847
Aléxia Faria, Corruption as a crime after Brazilian independence - a case study research on the controlling of corruption in the state Minas Gerais (1830-1940)

Lunch and free study time

15:00-15:30 Presentation forum historiae iuris

Coffee

16:00-17:30 Christian Pennera: EU Law and the history of the European Parliament's Legal Service

18:00

Evening Lecture

Gregori Garzón Clariana: International Law and the Law of the European Union

Friday, 22 July

9:15-10:45 Michael Stolleis: Constitutional Law

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Ana Beatriz Robalinho: Constitutional Narrative: The Use of History in Constitutional Law
Anna Lehmann Martins: The normative orders of state, church and religion: Multinormativity under ultramontane perspectives

Lunch and free study time

16:00-17:00 Guided Tour IG Farben and Campus Westend

Monday, 25 July

- 9:15-10:45 Rachel Furst: Striving for Justice: A History of Women and Litigation in the Jewish Courts of Medieval Ashkenaz
Geraldine Gudedin: Navigating the Civil and Religious Worlds: Jewish Immigrants & Marital Laws in France and the United States (1881-1939)

Coffee

- 11:15-12:45 Lucas Rebagliati: The miserables and their justice: The poor, prisoners and slaves in Buenos Aires (1776-1810)
Monique Falcão: Land ownership rights in Brasil

Lunch and free study time

- 15:30-17:00 Thomas Duve: Legal History of Latin America

Coffee

- 17:30-19:00 Caitlin Harvey: 'No child in all this careless world/Is ever out of sight': A Comparative Study of British 'Imperial' and American 'Internal' Child Migration Schemes, 1880 to 1950
Jane Manners: "Infinitely Dangerous to the Revenue of the United States": The Great New York Fire of 1835 and the Law of Disaster Relief in Jacksonian America

Tuesday, 26 July

- 9:15-10:45 Thorsten Keiser: Contemporary Legal History

Coffee

- 11:15-12:45 Josef Nothmann: Futures' Pasts: Central European Commodity Markets, 1870-1945
Hernán Valenzuela Gascón: Social constitutionalisation processes in the financial system. Multinormativity in the transnational realm

Lunch and free study time

- 15:30-17:00 Stefan Vogenauer: Common Law

Coffee

- 17:30-19:00 Discussion Groups: Latin America/ Common Law/ European Law

Wednesday, 27 July

9:15-10:45 Alexandra Kemmerer: International Law

Coffee

11:15-12:45 Xinyu Huang: The Role and Achievement of Censors in the Late Imperial China
Yang Bai: The Judicial Responsibility for Misjudged Cases in Qing Dynasty

Lunch and free study time

15:30-16:15 Zhiqiang Shi: Law, Empire and Governance of the Border Area in the Late Imperial of China

Coffee

17:00-18:30 Gerd Bender: Multinormativity – Resume Discussion

Thursday, 28 July

9:15-12:45 Exams

Lunch and free study time

15:00 Max Planck Summer Party

Friday, 29 July

10:00-11:30 Final Discussion and farewell