

Guest workshop on Legal Historiography

21st July,
MPlER room: Z 01

2.00 - 2.15 Welcome

Stefan Vogenauer (Max Planck Institute for European Legal History)

2.15 - 3.15 Session I

Chair: Angela Ballone (Max Planck Institute for European Legal History)

Álvaro Caso Bello (John Hopkins University)
*“Legal” and “Political” Representation in the Early-Modern Hispanic World:
Historical and Historiographical Entanglements*

Michele McArdle Stephens (Virginia University)
Criminal Women in Yucatán, 1910-1960

3.15 - 3.30 Coffee

3.30 - 4.30 Session II

Chair: Philip Bajon (Max Planck Institute for European Legal History)

Maciej Mikuła (Jagiellonian University)
Law and the Invention of Printing: Towards a Modern Legal Culture (case of Magdeburg Weichbildrecht)

Jānis Lazdiņš (Latvijas Universitātes)
The experience of the restitution of the right to private property after the Soviet occupation in Latvia

4.30 - 4.45 Coffee

4.45 - 5.45 Session III

Chair: Donal Coffey (Max Planck Institute for European Legal History)

Omer Aloni (Tel-Aviv University)

The League of Nations, the Birth of Institutionalized International Law, and Non-state Actors during the Interwar Period

Jonathan Rose (Arizona State University)

Sources in Medieval Legal History

5.45 - 6.15 Open discussion about historiography, sources, and methodology