

Prof. Dr. Karl Härter

COLLOQUIUM ON THE HISTORY OF POLICE AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Monday 4 June 2018 – 10:45 - 14:15 Hs.

MPIeR Seminar Room

Organizer: Prof. Dr. Osvaldo Barreneche and Prof. Dr. Karl Härter

10:45 – 11:00 Welcome

11:00 – 11:20

The Culture of Early Modern Criminal Procedure: Communication, Print Media and Criminal Justice.

Karl Härter

11:20 – 11:40

Political Crime in the French Wars of Religion: The ‘Traitor’ François Brigard, 1591.

Tom Hamilton

11:40 – 12:00

Oeconomic empowerment and criminal prosecution: Subordinates of Justice and “summary of information” in Buenos Aires towards the end of the 18th century.

Agustin Elías Casagrande

COFFEE BREAK (12:00 – 12:20)

12:20 – 12-40

Law enforcement and the criminalization of political conflicts in Brazilian First Republic (1889-1930): The assassination attempt against President Prudente de Moraes in 1897: a case study.

Raquel Sirotti

12:40 – 13:00

To guarantee a human police, beloved and respected by the people. The police justice in the National Territories during the first Peronism (Argentina).

Melisa Fernandez Marrón

13:00 – 13:20

Opponent: Modern Police and Criminal Justice across the Atlantic World.

Osvaldo Barreneche

13:20 – 14:00

Discussion, Debate, and Conclusion

14.00 – 14.15

Future Perspectives