

Prof. Dr. Karl Härter

Colloquium on the History of Transnational Criminal Law and Political Violence

Thursday 23 August 2018 – 11:00 - 16:00

MPIeR Frankfurt/M. Seminar Room

Organizer: Dr. Valeria Vegh Weis and Prof. Dr. Karl Härter

11:00 – 11:30

The Transnationalisation of Criminal Law in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Century: Political Crime, Police Cooperation, Security Regimes and Normative Orders.

Karl Härter (MPIeR Frankfurt)

11:30 – 12:15

'Us and them': Discourses on Political Protests and Demonstrations in the Records of Brazilian Federal Senate and House of Representatives (2013-2016).

Raquel Sirotti (MPIeR Frankfurt)

12:15 – 13:00

Criminal Selectivity and Transnational Crimes: the Effects of International Pressure on the Argentinean Criminal Justice System.

Valeria Vegh Weis (MPIeR Frankfurt)

COFFEE BREAK (13:00 – 13:30)

13:30 – 14:15

First Thoughts on Coding Criminal Law in France and Germany.

Johanna Nickels (FU Berlin)

14:15 – 15:00

The Exclusion of Transnational Crimes from the Jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court.

Taxiarchis Fiskatoris (JLU Marburg)

15:00 – 15:45

International vs. Transnational. A Discussion on Definitions and Terms.

Wolfgang Form (ICWC Marburg)

15:45 – 16:00

Discussion, Debate, Conclusion and Future Perspectives