

GLOBAL PERSPECTIVES ON LEGAL HISTORY

A Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory
Open Access Publication Series

Comparative law and history of law are both traditionally devoted to deepening the context of legal rules and legal institutions, i.e. to consider law in its space-time coordinates. In recent years, this trait is more and more conflicting with the tendency to present law as a depoliticized phenomenon. A group of comparative lawyers and legal historians critically discuss this assumption by examining it either from a theoretical perspective or from the point of view of their specific field of research.
