

Hans Kelsen
Hans Kelsen Werke

„Democracy cannot defend itself by abandoning itself.“
Was ist Gerechtigkeit? Von Deuticke, Wien 1953.

A historical-critical hybrid edition

Project details

- Publication of the complete works of the Austrian legal theorist Hans Kelsen (1881-1973) in approx. 32 volumes
- Historical-critical edition with double footnotes apparatus and thematic registers
- Transfer of the previous print publication into a hybrid edition: analysis of the editing process and transformation of the pre-digital into a digital workflow

Project goal

- Publication in printed and digital form, using a digital working environment
- Open Access (CC BY4.0) and sustainable usability of digital research data (moving wall principle)
- Interoperability of the digital edition
- Contribution to an ontology in digital jurisprudence (LOD)

Interdependencies

ediarum

Zotero

eXist-db

oXygen

GND

Hans Kelsen

Austrian legal theorist and "father of the constitution", representative of the "Pure Theory of Law"

Institution

Project of the AdW | Mainz located in Freiburg i. Brsg. and Frankfurt M.

Works

Complete works in approx. 32 volumes (seven volumes published so far in print by Mohr Siebeck Verlag)

DH-Component

eXist-db, ediarum, oXygen, coding, norm data, LOD, TYPO3, kelsen.online

Digital Humanities

Data Modeling

- XML according to the guidelines of the Text Encoding Initiative (TEI)
- Modeling of entities, of text structures and registers
- Linking norm data (e.g. GND) and reference management system (Zotero)

Digital Infrastructure

- XML-based edition environment in the oXygen author editor
- Extensional frameworks based on ediarum as well as the eXist-db app ediarum.db
- XML database eXist-db
- Deployment of TYPO3 CMS for kelsen.online
- Further prospect: implementation of the digital edition on kelsen.online

> You are here: Home Office

Hans-Kelsen-Research Center
Freiburg i. Brsg.

Frankfurt a. M.

GOETHE
UNIVERSITÄT
FRANKFURT AM MAIN

Project of the

Akademie der Wissenschaften
und der Literatur | Mainz
Geschwister-Scholl-Str. 2
55131 Mainz