

The Cambridge History of Latin American Law in Global Perspective

Provisional table of contents/ provisional list of authors

Introduction

Thomas Duve (Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory, Germany) and Tamar Herzog (Harvard University, United States)

Part 1: Methodology

1. How was and is Latin American Legal History Written? Carlos Petit (Huelva University, Spain)
2. What is a Legal History of Latin America? Tamar Herzog (Harvard University, United States)
3. How are Norms Produced? Thomas Duve (Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory, Germany)
4. What is a Global Legal History of Latin America? Mariana Dias Paes (Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory, Germany)

Part 2: Pre-Colonial Native Law – Caroline Cunill (Le Mans University, France)

Part 3: What is Colonial law?

1. Secular Law; Tamar Herzog (Harvard University, United States)
2. Canon Law and Moral Theology; Thomas Duve (Max Planck Institute for Legal History and Legal Theory, Germany)
3. Other Normative Spheres; Romina Zamora (National University of Tucumán/CONICET, Argentina)

Part 4: Independence(s): What is a Revolutionary Law? Federica Morelli (University of Turin, Italy)

Part 5: The Coming of States

1. Constructing a State; Monica Dantas (University of São Paulo, Brazil) and Roberto Saba (Wesleyan University, United States)
2. Constitutions; José Maria Portillo Valdés (University of the Basque Country, Spain)
3. Codifications; Carlos Ramos Núñez (Catholic University of Peru, Peru)

Part 6: The Omnipresence of States?

1. The Administrative State; Eduardo Zimmermann (San Andres University, Argentina)
2. Dictatorship; Cristiano Paixão (University of Brasília, Brazil)
3. Transitional Justice and Human Rights; Ruti Teitel (New York University, United States) and Valeria Vegh Weiss (Buenos Aires University/Free University of Berlin, Germany)

Part 7: Beyond the State - can State Law Survive in the Twenty-first Century? Daniel Bonilla Maldonado (Los Andes University, Colombia)