

Workshop: The Early Modern Encounter between European Slavery and Asian Bondage

Tuesday, July 13, 2021

- 4 pm – 4:10 pm Rômulo da Silva Ehalt (mpilhl) &
Stuart McManus (Chinese University of Hong Kong)
General introduction
- 4:10 pm – 4:40 pm Matthias van Rossum (International Institute of Social History) &
Alexander Geelen (International Institute of Social History/Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam)
Exploring Slavery and Bondage in Southeast Asia
- 4:40 pm – 5:10 pm Vinil Paul (Jawaharlal Nehru University)
*“Once a Slave is Always a Slave”: European Interventions in South West
Indian Local Slave Markets, c.1770-1820*
- 5:10 pm – 5:40 pm Cláudio Costa Pinheiro (The Federal University of Rio de Janeiro)
*Epistemic Colonialism in History as in Historiography: South Asian History
Puzzles to Historiographic Dominions*
- 5:40 pm – 6 pm General discussion

Wednesday, July 14, 2021

- 4 pm – 4:30 pm Don J. Wyatt (Middlebury College)
Eastward across the Western Sea: The Indian Oceanic Trafficking of Africans into China
- 4:30 pm – 5 pm James Fujitani (Azusa Pacific University)
The Sino-Portuguese Slave Trade in the Sixteenth Century
- 5 pm – 5:30 pm Stuart M. McManus (Chinese University of Hong Kong)
Military Slavery in Early Modern East Africa and Asia
- 5:30 pm – 6 pm Rômulo da Silva Ehalt (mpilhl)
*Contrasting Categories: European Enslavement and Japanese Geninka (c.
1590–1625)*
- 6 pm – 6:10 pm Final remarks

Discussants

- TBA