Celebrar lo imposible
El Código Civil en el régimen jurídico de la propiedad: Córdoba entre fines del siglo XIX y comienzos del XX

Pamela Alejandra Cacciavillani is a Professor for the History of Legal Institutions at the University of Monterrey, Mexico. She holds a PhD in Law and Social Sciences from the National University of Córdoba, Argentina. Her research focuses on the legal-historical construction of property in the province of Córdoba, Argentina, at the end of the 19th century.

This book offers a legal-historical examination of the construction of property in the province of Córdoba, Argentina, at the end of the 19th century. The author analyzes the interaction of the civil codification, Argentina’s federal structure, and the systems for the official surveying of land and registration of property. In this context, she focuses on the privatization of the territories belonging to indigenous communities in Córdoba province from the 1870s to the early 20th century.
