

Justice without the State

Workshop on the LOEWE Research Focus “Extrajudicial and Judicial Conflict Resolution”

1 – 3 November 2012

Venue:
Goethe-University Frankfurt a.M.
Casino, Room 1801 (Thursday)
IG-Farben-Building, Eisenhower Hall (Friday, Saturday)

—AGENDA—

Thursday, 1 November 2011

11.00 – 11.30 Welcome and Introduction
Thomas Duve / Peter Collin

11.30 – 13.00 Different Perspectives of Justice and Conflict Management

Silvia Tellenbach (Freiburg i.Br.)
Islamic Law, Secular Law, and Customary Law – Aspects of a Rich Interrelationship

Stefan Magen (Bochum)
A Behavioral Perspective on Justice and Conflict Resolution

13.00 – 14.00 Lunch break

14.00 – 17.15 Justice-Related Problems of Non-State Conflict Resolution in a Globalized World

Linda C. Reif (Edmonton, AB)
Changing Conceptions of Justice in Ombudsman Dispute Resolution:
From the Classical Ombudsman to the Human Rights Ombudsman Model

Andreas Maurer (Bremen)
Vanishing Trails in Maritime Law - why Arbitration Replaces Litigation in the Maritime Industry

15.30 – 16.00 Coffee break

Joachim Zekoll (Frankfurt a.M.)
Online Dispute Resolution – Justice without the State?

To be followed by a joint dinner

Friday, 2 November 2012

09.30 – 12.15 Just Conflict Management in Areas of Limited Statehood

Katherin A. Hermés (New Britain, CT)

Native Americans, the Colonial Encounter, and the Law of Harm, 1600-1787

Perig Pitrou (Paris)

Traditional Institutions of Conflict Resolution in Indian Communities of Central America

11.00 – 11.30 Coffee break

Matthias Kötter (Berlin)

Recognizing Non-State Justice Institutions: Better Access to Justice or "Poor Justice for the Poor"?

12.15 – 13.15 Lunch break

13.15 – 14.45 Justice without the State within State Structures

Monika Wienfort (Berlin)

Private Courts and Rural Justice in Prussia (1815-1848)

Wilfried Rudloff (Kassel)

Justice and Social Reconciliation in the Structure and Rulings
of the German Trade Courts in the Late Nineteenth Century

To be followed by an University- and City walking tour and a joint dinner

Saturday, 3 November 2012

09.30 – 11.00 Justice without the State within State Structures (cntd.)

Marianne Constable (Berkeley, CA)

The Mixed Jury: Language as Proxy for Belonging

Nikolai Kovalev (Waterloo, ON)

Trial by Jury and State Control: Justice without the State or State without Justice

11.00 – 11.30 Coffee break

11.30 – 12.15 Final discussion